

AS YOU HAVE SPOKEN – 3
AUGUST 13, 2017

NUMBERS 14:28

Paul stated that what happened to the Israelites in the wilderness was recorded for our benefit so that we would not make the same mistakes they made. 1 CORINTHIANS 10:11 - The writer of Hebrews used the same testimony to warn believers today of how unbelief can prevent them from entering the promises of the new covenant. HEBREWS 4:1-3

2 CORINTHIANS 4:13

The life of faith has much to do with what we believe and say.

2 CORINTHIANS 5:7

We are to be more focused on what we believe over what we see. What we see is natural reality. What we believe is unseen spiritual reality. Faith looks at the unseen.

2 CORINTHIANS 4:18

Seen things are temporal, unseen things are eternal, and not subject to change.

JAMES 3:2-8

Our words can set the course of our lives. If we want to change our direction, we must tame the tongue.

PROVERBS 16:24

Our words affect us mentally and physically.

PROVERBS 12:18

Our words can weaken or strengthen relationships.

PROVERBS 6:2

Our words can enslave or liberate us.

JEREMIAH 23:28-29 (NIV)

Speaking God's Word faithfully causes positive things to happen and can break a rock of opposition in pieces.

JEREMIAH 1:12

God always performs His Word.

PSALMS 141:3

It's our responsibility to ask God's help so we can learn to speak words that promote God's will in our lives and help us enter our full blessings in Christ.

€ EPHESIANS 4:29-30 – Words that minister grace.

€ COLOSSIANS 4:6 – Words that preserve from corruption.

€ PHILEMON 1:6 – Words that make our faith effectual.
