- 8.) Replicate the atmosphere of Heaven (REV. 4:8-11).

A.) In Heaven:

- There is no competition, no selfishness, wrong motives, jealousy, backbiting, slander, ill will or evil intent.
- Every creature is in complete surrender to God. No one is saying I don’t feel like singing or lifting my hands. No one needs exhorted to worship.
- God is honored for being our creator and redeemer.

B.) Three things are mentioned.

- Glory and Honor: These emphasize the sum total of God’s attributes and call attention to His person.
- Thanks: Highlights His work in creation and redemption.

C.) The way they worshipped.

- Fall down – to prostrate oneself to give God homage.
- Cast their crowns – represent everything we’ve done for the Lord during our lifetime. Our accomplishments, achievements, and life’s work. By casting them down, we give Jesus the glory for using us on earth. All that we do for Him accumulates for His glory!
