PRAISE AND WORSHIP
NOVEMBER 18, 2026

PS. 103:20 NLT

Throughout God's Word are many commands to praise God. Angels are commanded; PS. 148:2 NLT - Heaven's armies; ROM. 15:11 - all the people of the earth; PS. 150:6 NLT - everything that breathes. He's to be praised with singing, shouting, dancing and musical instruments.

PS. 138:1-2 KJV, NLT

There's a difference between praise and worship. Praise can be loud, boisterous and uninhibited. It's released with expressions of gratitude and thanksgiving for all God has done.

PS. 96:9 NLT

In worship the tone changes. We worship Him for who He is. PS 95:6 NLT. It often includes bowing down and kneeling, which are signs of humility, reverence and respect.

- LK. 4:6-8 AMPC - Worship is reserved for God alone. It involves losing self in the adoration of God and surrendering our all to Him in worship. LEV. 10:3 NKJV, EX. 3:5 NKJV.
- REV. 4:9-11, 5:9-14 – Raptured saints, 24 elders, four beasts, angels, all the redeemed and all the beings in all realms will worship who He is: Creator, Sustainer, and Redeemer.

CONCLUSION: PS. 100:1-5

God created us for Himself. We are to know: He is God, we are His people, we enter His gates with thanksgiving, His courts with praise and if we desire to be near Him, we "must" worship at His holy temple in spirit and truth. JOHN 4:21-24 – It's not about a location, it's about an attitude of the heart.
